

Issue 6 Spring 2021 2021·春

This issue of "True Light Readers" is all led by students in the Library Society. Each person writes a topic that she is interested. Some students are deeply interested in special libraries. Some have considerable knowledge of movie-related books, and some share their reading experience and preferences, all of which are full of personal touches. By reading them, I am delighted because every true lighter finds the light to illuminate themselves in reading.

當初我是怎麼喜歡上書的呢? 說起來也挺尷 尬的,我就是要故意顯得格調很高:「哇看 書,嘖嘖嘖,高人一等」的心態。小學的時 候,在桌底看金庸小說被老師抓到,覺得很 風光,因為一說金庸就已經感覺自己技壓群 芳了。後來更看一些文學作品,甚麼《殺死 一隻知更鳥》、《罪與罰》等。這回就真的 裝得有點過分了,因為開始發現自己看不太 懂,甚麼大哲理小哲理,我領略不來,也害 怕別人問起這書是說甚麼的,因為我總不知 從何說起,心裡很糾結,氣燄一下子收斂了 不少。

不過,也多虧這種喜歡人前裝擺的心態,後 來我真的越來越喜歡看書。然而一開始總是 很苦的,要把書整本看完,須要堅持一下, 一旦過了這個坎,就發現無論厚書、薄書, 都能看下去了。

漸漸地我就選自己真正喜歡看的,哪怕別 人怎麼看,也好替自己喜歡的作者宣傳一 下。第一部要介紹的是陳彥的《主角》, 講述一個秦腔名伶-憶秦娥的故事。在七、 八十年代的中國,大部分人都出生於農 村,再到縣城努力打拼,憶秦娥也是如 此。她到縣城後吃了很多苦才一步步成為 自己想成為的樣子。小說裏面很多人物都 把一生奉獻了「秦腔」這個事業;包括四 位老師把畢生絕技傾囊而授給憶秦娥,只 求這些絕技不要失傳。還有憶秦娥的舅 舅,一生為打鼓而活着,每場戲都打到汗 如雨下。故事一直講到憶秦娥年近半百, 不得不退下來,令人看得暗自神傷。

小說裡面各個小故事、小人物都是有靈魂 的,他們為實踐理想的熱血和堅韌多次觸 動了我,這是一部很完整也很有力量的小 說。有一段時期我也看了很多網絡小說, 其中一部是《山楂樹之戀》, 秋和老三在中國文革後期發生的愛情事 情。我看的時候也進入了一種痴迷的狀 態,時而為兩個人能相聚而高興,時而又 為兩人不能相見而揪心,我一口氣就把故 事追完。記得在代後記裡,靜秋說到:

「我們看書的時候,若仍能夠為別人的故 事而感動,那我們的心就真正地活着,因 為我們還有共情的能力。」相隔那麼多 年,仍然有讀者為了靜秋的故事感動、流 下熱淚,老三的愛和生命力仍然能鼓勵讀 者珍惜身邊人,我想這是閱讀特別珍貴的 地方。

因為喜歡書,中一我就加入了圖書館學 會,以前我是放學當值的,放學後圖書館 人比較少,我就幫忙把書排到書架上,碰 巧看到感興趣的就馬上借閱,這是我挺享 受的自由和悠閒時光。在圖書館學會四 年,我體會到做一件事不用太在意有什麼 目的,不須執着於做了它以後會否對自己 的成績有所幫助,或者這件事是否迎合大 眾。圖書館裡還有很多沉靜寡言,但背後 很用心籌辦活動和當值的人,我從她們身 上學會了用心做好每件小事。記得有一次 活動,李老師在圖書館泡茶,我們一眾會 員就坐在前面看着,泡完後就一起喝茶, 泡茶的時候特別寧靜,特別專注。我想, 讀一本書跟泡一杯茶都是一樣,單純而專 注的去幹一件事是很爽的。

希望大家都多看書,因為喜歡,就會一直 做下去,人也高興一點。

Emoji Game

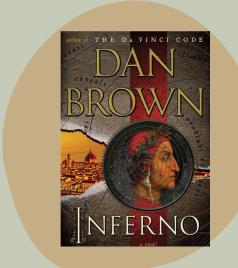

In this year's Reading Week, we organized an emoji game, in which students guessed the book names through emoji and some tips. We were very delighted to receive extremely responses from schoolmates. The most memorable experience is when I saw Forms 1 and 2 students working extremely hard in the last half an hour before the deadline of the game, I felt very grateful and was sure that students enjoyed the game very much. This warmed my heart a lot. There was also a book fair. On its last day, I saw that many students used the coupons from the emoji game to buy books. I am very glad that the emoji game indirectly promotes reading.

Ever since the Golden Era of movies, numerous novels have been rewritten as screenplays as a way of paying homage to the originals, from classics like Austen's Pride and Prejudice and Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre to sagas like Lord of the Rings, which despite the test of time, still endure, until recently the world-renowned film series of Robert Langdon.

"Seek and ye shall find." The adaptation of Inferno by Dan Brown was released in 2016, in which Robert Langdon, a professor of symbology, who decodes mysteries from classic literature by Dante and other Italian artists, stops the release of a world-wide virus.

In the book, Sienna Brooks hopes with the assistance of Robert's expertise, the virus can be found and therefore prevent the release of the virus, but as it turns out, the virus was already released and the world was already infected. In the film, it has a similar narrative as what the book describes but with a few alterations; for example, rather than preventing its release, Sienna is willing to sacrifice her own life for it, as in her perspective, this is the way to save mankind. The other ending is unlike the original, where the virus was not released, which in my opinion, is to fulfill the expectations of a 'happily ever after' ending.

It has been known that films and books provide much more than mere entertainment, they shape our hopes and beliefs for the future. Although these adjustments might be there to satisfy the longing of a fairytale ending, their existence might also be due to the fact that literature, both on screen and paper alike, has the responsibility to preserve the optimism in mankind as without it, we will only live in fear and anxiety. As in Hunger Games, 'Hope is the only thing stronger than Fear'; so in these days, no matter how deterrent it is, we always need to find the light in the dark.

讀書會有感 3B盧珈言

升上中三後,課業變得繁重,也要準備 選科,因此我會用較多時間去處理學習 方面的事。在專心學習的同時,亦要有 適當的休息時間。對我來說,參加讀書 會是能讓我放鬆下來的活動之一。

最令我感到深刻的讀書會,就是在復活 節期間,由香港真光中學、沙田循道衛 理中學及風采中學合辦的網上聯校讀書 會。這次的講者—李淑媚女士介紹的書本 不是小說、詩集,而是繪本。我一直認 為繪本只供兒童閱讀,因其當中的故事 淺白,所使用的文字較簡單。然而李女

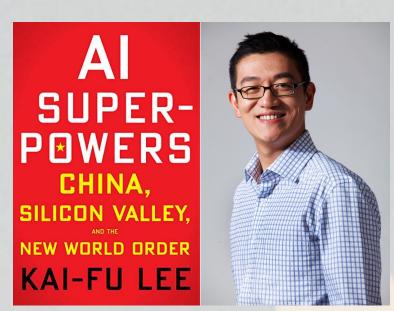

雖然讀書會只有幾十分鐘,但已能讓我 放鬆下來, 專注地閱讀以及聆聽別人的 分享,我會更珍惜並享受參加讀書會的 時光。

Book Title | AI superpowers - China, Silicon Valley, and the new world order

Author | Kai-Fu Lee

One of my friends recommended me about this book on AI superpowers that would help me understand what is actually going on with the frequently quoted names like Alibaba, Tencent, Baidu, Google, Microsoft, Apple, Tesla, Amazon, etc. It turns out to be a hugely satisfying and insightful book, with some of the key ideas of the book as below:

- US enjoys the huge advantage as the first-mover on AIrevolution:
- But China at this stage enjoys another huge advantage as 1) there is strong governmental policy promoting the growth of AI-based companies; 2) the availability of huge (according to Lee, the world's largest) pool of data supply from individuals that can feed into the AI learning;
- The focus of the age of AI has changed from invention to implementation; and in the age of implementation, quality matters much more than quantity;
- Both U.S. and China's entrepreneurs can be creative in their own ways;
- With the development of AI technology, U.S. and China could enjoy a disproportionate national power in the future, leading to the world in a bipolar order;
- The even bigger debate lies on humans VS AI: whether human beings will, or in which ways, be replaced by AI.

I am overwhelmingly impressed by how Lee had the insights into both the US and China's AI development. This offers a very unique perspective to re-comprehend the many companies that I come across with in daily life. (I am right now using MS word (owned by WhatsApp) to type, communicating through WhatsApp (owned by Facebook) with the room air filtered by a Xiaomi air-filtering machine, and sending out this article by Gmail (owned by Google).

Ultimately, the most intriguing question is to what extent AI will replace human beings. What I have learnt from Lee is that, for most of the routine jobs in this world, AI is far more reliable than humans. Yet, what truly separates humans and AI is the fact that humans can sympathize, and interact with true emotions and genuine compassion. It appears to me that if we could harness the power of AI in an appropriate way, just like how we did in the Industrial Revolution, we would unprecedentedly engage with the ones that we should truly care for.

隨著智慧型手機越來越發達,我們在休閒 時間可以玩的遊戲種類越來越多。雖然一 般動作遊戲或簡單規則的益智遊戲也很有 趣,但需要絞盡腦汁想出正確解答的推理 遊戲,反倒更讓人有種跳脫日常的過癮。 以下有一條問題,讓我們動動腦筋吧!

推理小遊戲

辨真偽

有5名中學生被學校訓導主任找來問話,他們 5個人説話內容如下:

濤濤說: 「我在平時上課的時候從來都不看

課外書。」

小強說:「濤濤說的不是真話,他在撒

謊。」

洋洋說: 「我在班上是學習最認真的學生

了。」

「洋洋說的不是真話,他在說

謊。」

「洋洋和明明說的都不是真話,他 月月說:

們在說謊。」

請問,你能根據以上內容判斷5人之中到底有

幾多個人在撤謊嗎?
